

STRATEGIES, IDEAS AND THOUGHTS FOR CHAPLAINS IN CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTIONS:

What follows are some strategies, ideas and thoughts shared with Chaplaincy Innovation Lab (www.chaplaincyinnovation.org) by other chaplains. Please feel free to print them out and share with colleagues. If you have strategies and ideas you would like to add, please email them to CILResources1@gmail.com

IDEAS AND STRATEGIES	SUGGESTED BY:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No volunteers or visitors allowed at this time. 39 different religious groups. Currently they are allowed to still meet.<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Invited religious volunteers to email me letters to the religious groups.○ Letting the religious groups know that if they would like me to come and speak to their groups about the virus and spirituality, I will.• We are currently low tech but working on creating high tech solutions.	Nicole Dick (nicole.dick@iowa.gov) Correctional Chaplain at Fort Dodge Correctional Facility and North Central Correctional Facility. Both in Iowa.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Change Companies, has created a webpage with resources designed for the correctional environment that require NO STAFF OR VOLUNTEER FACILITATION to address some of the programming challenges that have arisen during the COVID-19 crisis. You can visit this webpage by clicking here.	Joe Pryor Vice President of Program Excellence The Change Companies ® www.changecompanies.net Office (888) 889-8866

Remember

If you have strategies and ideas you would like to add, please email them to CILResources1@gmail.com